Where is the plan to stop this human rights scandal?

#HumanToo  #StrippedofHumanRights

The latest data shows there are at least 2,255 people with a learning disability and/or autism in inpatient units.

People with a learning disability and/or autism who are sent to inpatient units are there for an average of 5.4 years.

---

At risk

Over 10,000 reported uses of restrictive interventions in three months e.g. physical, chemical, mechanical restraint and being kept in isolation.

Of these, almost a third 3,230 were against Children (under 18s)

Highest ever reported number of restricted interventions in one month

3,715 in April 2019 alone

1,025 were against children under 18.

---

Children in units

Under 18s

The number of children with a learning disability and/or autism in inpatient units has increased.

- August 2019: 245
- March 2015: 110

Young people in units

There are 425 young people aged 18-24 in inpatient units.