1000s of conversations leading to Gr8 action:

1000s of Support Workers have told us they love their job but need to be valued, connect with others and be inspired.

Over 20 Gr8 webinars from on a wide range of topics such as death/loss, real choice and #nobedtimes.

The 8 qualities that make a Gr8 Support Worker:
as identified by over 200 people with a learning disability and their families

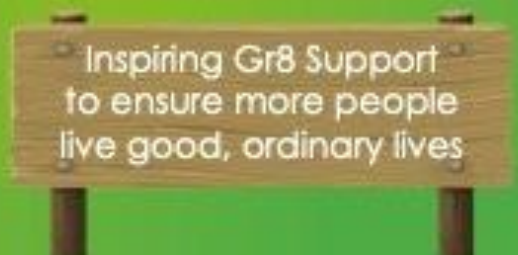

1. Adventurous
2. Friendly
3. Encouraging
4. Supportive of my loving
5. Connecting
6. Advocating
7. Respectful
8. Resourceful

Organisations improving their recruitment and job descriptions to include the Gr8 qualities of a Support Worker

This is terrible!
Support Workers MUST do better!

Awful!

Inspiring Gr8 Support to ensure more people live good, ordinary lives

Join The Gr8 Support Movement to make a difference

The Gr8 Support Movement was set up in response to a photo on social media in 2016 that triggered a lot of negative comments about Support Workers. Paradigm wanted the world to see how Gr8 many Supporter Workers are and create a space where they feel valued and supported – a movement to connect, learn, share and grow good practice.
