

Challenging Behaviour – National Strategy Group: March 2011

provision and outcomes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Importance of high quality training being available to key workers around challenging behaviour • Importance of high quality training to key workers around working in partnership with families • Education, Health & Care Plan should be owned by child/young person & family • How would children attending special needs schools benefit from a personal budget? Need to develop a local market • Free special schools are a risk • How will aspirations be raised? • Lack of shared vision across children and adults services • Challenge the assumption that all special schools know how to effectively support challenging behaviour
Provide key points from Green paper consultation to family carers & encourage them to respond	CBF	Before June 2011		Awareness raising
Ask Eric Emerson & Jim Mansell to provide a response to the Green Paper specifically on early intervention for children with learning disabilities in relation to challenging behaviour	Steering group	April 2011		Evidence gathering

Challenging Behaviour – National Strategy Group: March 2011

SEN Green paper Develop link between individual Education, Health & Care Plans and Joint Strategic Needs Assessment (JSNA)	SHA leads to input to green paper & discuss implementation. Jo Poynter to lead	July 2011		Awareness raising & best practice
Attend anti-bullying alliance seminar	Jill Davies (FPLD)	March 2011		Evidence gathering
Research sources of accessible information for family carers on local decision making e.g. What is a health & wellbeing board? What is Health Watch? How can I input?	National Valuing Families Forum	June 2011		Evidencing gathering/Best practice
Investigate how to influence GP consortia.	MENCAP to share information and contacts. Beverley to confirm link person.	Ongoing 2011		Evidence gathering
Meeting regional GP Educators and provide a summary of the role of GP Educators & how to influence	Dave Williams (NW PBS Network)	April 2011		Evidence gathering
Write to Department for Local Government Minister responsible highlighting key housing issues. Draft letter to send	Mark McGoogan (Golden Lane Housing)	June 2011		Awareness raising