making a difference to the lives of people with severe learning disabilities

Workshop

Working Together for Learning Disability

For nurses, families and carers

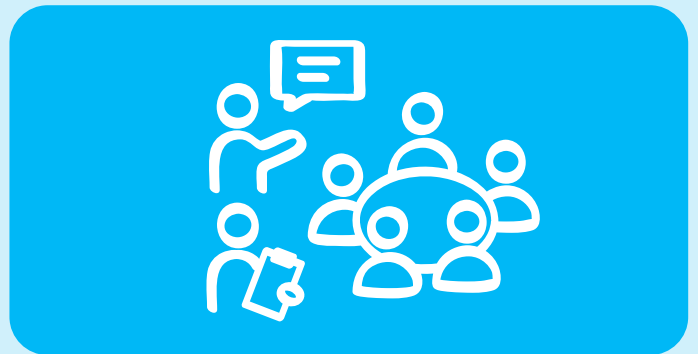

Does your relative have a learning disability/are you a learning disability nurse?

Are you based in/near Bristol?

This workshop is designed to facilitate things that will help, using our expertise and long experience of bringing together families, carers, professionals, to work alongside each other.

The workshop is on:
Wednesday 11th May
Via Zoom
10.00am to 2.30pm

We know things could be better for people with learning disabilities, their families and Learning Disability nurses.

Find out more about the workshop on our webpage.
