

FRONT LINE FAMILIES

In the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, Frontline Families are providing events designed to meet the needs of families of disabled children and adults who have a range of support needs. See all events on our webpage.

bit.ly/FLFweb

Or scan QR code →

What can therapy do for your Child?

Understanding who does what in mental health.

Are you unsure about therapy, about what it can do for your child and want to find out more?

Join us for this workshop led by Ruth Commons - a Child & Adolescent Psychotherapist to find out what you need to know.

This will include looking at what children need and helping you to get clearer on who does what in the health system.

Thursday 23rd June 2022
from 10am to 12noon

The workshop will cover things such as active listening and using metaphor.

Join us on Zoom for an informative session with Mrs Ruth Commons BA Hons(QTS), PGCC, Adv. Dip. Cp Dist., MNCS Acc. Child and Adolescent Psychotherapist for info email: pippa@bringingustogether.org.uk

Frontline Families is a partnership of organisations who work with families of disabled children and adults who have a range of support needs.

